1960 VOYAGER

Rich, You're a real great guy who always brightens up my history class.
Keep that great personality Rich, and good luck in your senior year.
Love + luck
Alice

Ricki,
What are you always laughing at?
You always seem to be doing so. Good luck in your future years. Be good to all the girls R. M. 9.
Carol

Rich One of the nicest kids in school. Don't forget the words that I've used in Spanish class.
Mary Jean

Rich, Someone who has been a lot of fun in study hall.
Luck. Diane

Rich,
A real sweet boy
in the junior class.
Good luck in everything you do. R. M. 9.
Arlene

Rick,
a real goof ucks the most my wife - this last miserable year - seriously, school year a nice guy,
your really a sarcastic SOB dead Keep that sarcastic personality and you'll before you 21!

Rick,
A real sharp kid that I've known for a long time. You're finally legal in my book. Keep your A-1 personality. I hope we can always be the best of friends and look back on a future K.M.C.

Rich.

To the smartest, richest, cutest, sweetest, ohh
I can't go through with this, I guess I'm just the biggest type. Forg about the beginning. To the stupidest, poorest, ugliest, and also the raunchiest "ape" I know. Luck in all you attempt which will probably nothing. I hope you know I'm only you really are pretty neat. Rick.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Roy M. Hickes

Superintendent Of Schools

For the last nine years Dr. Hickes has served as the superintendent of the Carnegie Public Schools. Before he came to Carnegie, he was the principal of Glassport High School, his alma mater. Since he has been at Carnegie, he has added many new subjects to the curriculum. He has a difficult job, but he is constantly improving our school system. He is admired by both the faculty and the students.

Mr. Kenneth L. Logan

Principal

Before becoming principal of Carnegie High School, Mr. Logan was principal of Harding Junior High School. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree at Clarion State Teachers College and his Master of Education degree at the University of Pittsburgh.

This is Mr. Logan's second year as principal of Carnegie High School; but in these two years, he has won the respect and admiration of all the students.

Board of Education

The Board of Education is composed of a group of men who have at heart the interests of all students of the high school and the grade schools, as well as those of the taxpayers. It is their duty to see that any school problem brought before them receives the best possible solution and that this solution is carried out. Any difficulty receives individual attention and careful consideration in an attempt to correct it.

The Carnegie School Board is composed of seven members who are elected by the people of the town for a term of five years. They meet in the conference room of the high school the second Monday of each month. These meetings are always open to the public in order that problems of a student or taxpayer may immediately confront the board without unnecessary delays. The school board is also responsible for extending every opportunity to each member of the community, and to offer to adults, as well as students, the use of modern facilities within the school buildings. This is done by having adult classes in the evenings. Many people, because of this opportunity, become happier and, therefore, better citizens of our community.

The Carnegie Board of Education, with the other duties already listed, has another job to perform. It has the responsibility of seeing that all school business and activities function properly; it supervises the maintenance of school buildings, financial problems, taxation, and all other school problems.

We of the VOYAGER staff are proud of and grateful to these men who so unselfishly work to improve the Carnegie school system.

Athletic Association

The success of Carnegie High's athletic program depends largely upon the combined efforts of the members of the Athletic Association. The Athletic Association is one of the vital parts of our school system since it controls all forms of athletics in which our students participate.

The responsibilities of this association are many and require a great deal of time and effort. The most important of these are: scheduling of games; purchasing new equipment; providing transportation for the players; hiring and paying the officials; and, of course, coaching and training the teams.

The line of responsibility goes from the coaches, who have the closest contact with the players; to the faculty manager, Mr. Speziale; to the principal, Mr. Logan; to the superintendent, Dr. Hickes; and finally to the Board of Education.

Mr. Zaney is the head football coach and also the physical education director of the boys. Mrs. Ball is the physical education director and coordinator of the girls' sports. She is also in charge of all intramural activities for girls only, and those activities for mixed doubles, such as badminton and table tennis. Mr. Marcenelle, Mr. Stockum, and Mr. D'Alessandro are assistant football coaches. Mr. Sobie is head coach of basketball and junior high football. Mr. Marcenelle is his assistant coach for basketball. Mr. Stockum is head coach of the baseball; Mr. Bandyk, tennis; Mr. Zaney, golf; Mr. Andresky, rifle; and Mr. Swenn, wrestling. Mr. Group is assistant wrestling coach.

FIRST ROW: Dr. Hickes, Mr. Logan, Mrs. Ball, Mr. Speziale. SECOND ROW: Mr. Sobie, Mr. Andresky, Mr. Zaney, Mr. Bandyk, Mr. Stockum.

Senior Play
Stardust

As the result of hard work, the Senior Class play, "Stardust," was presented on November 19 and 20. The play, a comedy, centered about the trials and tribulations of students, professors, and a visiting actress in a modern dramatic school. Loud laughter could be heard when the students, led by their zany professor, showed that they felt their parts.

The cast deserves much praise for its fine acting, as do the committees, for their hard work. However, none of it could have been possible without the patience, imagination, and efforts of the director, Mr. Clawson.

Although the play was of a different type from those usually produced at Carnegie, it was deemed a success by all.

Homeroom 102

Walking into Room 102 before classes in the morning, one sees the bowed heads of the studying members of the Eight O'clock Club, who, as punishment, report early. The room is a most pleasant one, decorated with pictures and posters of the problems of democracy classes which meet there.

When the eight-thirty bell rings, varied personalities are found in here. Our unanimous choice for class comedian would be John Mullaney. The president of the junior class, Louis Telerico, is in this room. Mary Lu Speziale sings with the Girls' Ensemble; Dick White, the Double Quartet.

Homeroom 206

The room with perhaps the most activity is room 206, Miss Boyle's homeroom. The sound of office machines can almost always be heard, for office practice classes are held here. This is a change for the homeroom students, for last year they were in Mr. Burkett's room. Because of this year's physics television course, they were transferred. The new environment, though, met with their approval.

The officers of organizations in Room 206 are as follows: Marcia Stein - vice president of the Golden Rule Tri-Hi-Y and Betty Plachecki - treasurer of the Golden Rule Tri-Hi-Y. Billy Lewis sings with the Double Quartet. Lynn Hall is one of the high-stepping majorettes. This room is well represented in Student Council by Betty Plachecki. Lindale Scott and Lynn Hall are members of the VOYAGER Staff.

Homeroom 208

Sounds, not understandable to most people, can often be heard coming from Room 208, for this is the headquarters of the French and Spanish Classes. Mr. Palonis, the instructor of these classes, is also 208's junior homeroom teacher. Well-known for his subtle humor, he makes the twenty minute periods very enjoyable.

Although Room 208 is one of the smaller homerooms, it has some distinguished persons. Diane Bevard, the only junior cheerleader, is also the secretary of the Junior Class. Virginia Palombi is its treasurer. Judy Sutton and Richard English are members of the Voyager Staff. Donna Giglotte is the assistant editor of the See. Donna Porter sings with the Girls' Ensemble.

Homeroom 210

The junior homeroom, Room 210, is one of the typical ones of Carnegie High. The twenty minute period finds the class pursuing serious study in preparation for the day's classes. Mr. Stockum, also coach of the baseball and football teams, is in charge of the homeroom. Long will he be remembered for his famous "deals."

Homeroom 210 is well represented in Student Council by Ken Medwig. Ken is also the secretary of the Varsity C and secretary of the Novus Hi-Y. Richard Grove plays in the band; Janice Swoger is a majorette. Elizabeth Yustak and Rose Marie Trybus are members of the Girls' Ensemble. Bernadette Broniak is the Chaplain of the Golden Rule Tri-Hi-Y. Janice Swoger and Louise Cook are on the Voyager Staff.

Homeroom 212

The biology room, Room 212, is the scene of the homeroom class under the supervision of Mr. Cross. This room is unusual because it is the only room in the high school to have tables with drawers instead of having the usual desks. Also, during the science fair, many colorful projects of the biology class are on display here.

The offices held by the homeroom members in 212 are as follows: Alice Bilewicz - president of the Golden Rule Tri-Hi-Y, Richard Roth - president of the Biology Club, Dennis Wilcox - vice president of the Biology Club, Wayne Szafranski - treasurer of the Civil Defense Club, and John DeFonso - vice president of the junior class. Skip Young sings with the Double Quartet and Patricia Dixon and Alice Bilewicz sing with the Girls' Ensemble.

Art Room

The homeroom teacher of the Art Room is Mrs. Pavlov, who is well liked by all of her students. After having the same homeroom for two years, she is convinced that it is one of the best.

Although the Art Room is one of the smallest junior homerooms, it is well represented in school activities: Dolores Cardamone - vice president of the Debate Team, Janice Masciantonio - secretary of the Biology Club, Allegro Chiesa - president of the Original Hi-Y. John Green sings with the Double Quartet; Gwen Gibbs, Bob Mason, and Tom Duda play in the band. Student Council has as its representative of this room Joe Benedict, who is also the president of the French and Spanish Club.

Homeroom 103

The sophomores of Room 103 have for their homeroom teacher Mrs. Mattson. Since both Mrs. Mattson and the sophomores are new to Carnegie High School, it is very appropriate that they be placed together.

Room 103 has quite a few people in school activities. Rose Marie Zupcic is one of our sweet majorettes who is always worrying about her routines. Jessica Bunio is the president of the Delta Tri-Hi-Y. Diane Warholak is the secretary of the Delta Tri-Hi-Y. Ken Boyda is the secretary of the Novus Hi-Y. Jessica Bunio and Tom O'Neil were chairmen for the United Fund Campaign.

Homeroom 103 is engaged in a special activity -- every morning the students begin to talk with the objective of seeing who can talk the longest. Perhaps one day the contest can become official and the winner given a trophy. Who knows?

Homeroom 105

The sophomore homeroom, Room 105, is under the supervision of Miss Louise Dickenson. This room is one of the more active ones in Carnegie High School. Members of Room 105 are constantly busy taking part in school activities. These are not only sophomore activities, but things which concern all Carnegie High School students; not just selected activities, such as clubs, but activities for which the students are chosen, such as Student Council and the Girls' Ensemble.

Gary Benedict represents the room on Student Council; Carolyn Seder is the vice president of the Delta Tri-Hi-Y, and Ruth McClain is the chaplain of the club; Christine Parkman is in the Girls' Ensemble; Joann Roman is a cheerleader.

Homeroom 204

Room 204, a room of newcomers to Carnegie High School, the sophomores, is the homeroom of Mrs. Emily Chidlow. For some reason, this room seems to be the center of many activities. There are always people in this room who belong in other homerooms, but find things more interesting in Room 204.

Bob Aston is one of the few sophomores to be on the Varsity Basketball Team. Linda Grove is exceptional in that she constantly receives high honor grades. Nancy Bogdon is the Student Council representative in Room 204. Nancy is a very busy young lady--besides being on Student Council, she is also a cheerleader and treasurer of the Delta Tri-Hi-Y.

Student Activities

The Student Activities room is one of the smaller sophomore homerooms, under the supervision of Mr. Clawson. Its decorations are changed frequently although the basic theme usually centers around some part of a speech course, for that is what Mr. Clawson teaches. However, constant companions to the students are the masks on the bulletin board. These were sent to Mr. Clawson from all parts of the world. A large dark-brown one is said to be an actual death mask from Africa.

The homeroom students are always in suspense for they never know just how the desks will be arranged in the room. They don't really mind the changes; they seem to like variety in their day's program.

The room has Gloria Buny as a representative to Student Council.

Study Hall

The Study Hall, contrary to its name, is also a sophomore homeroom under the supervision of Mrs. Werner. She and the sophomores are new to Carnegie High School this year. The Study Hall is unique because it is the largest classroom in the school and the only one located in the basement. It also has the most students of any homeroom in the school. These students always seem to be enjoying themselves, for their large number helps create an informal atmosphere.

Some of the students are very active in the functions of the school. This room is well represented in Student Council by Kathleen Haracy and Gerald McNavish. Kathleen Haracy, Patricia Zawilla, and Jim Riding are on the VOYAGER Staff.

To Carnegie High, football is the sport which brings together the entire student body in a burst of pep and enthusiasm for the Little Tartans. At the games, the spectators, along with the Pep Club and cheerleaders, yell and cheer encouragement to the team with the aim of "Victory, victory is our cry!" in mind.

At the beginning of the season, the future didn't seem too bright, for the entire experienced backfield of last year had graduated, leaving new recruits in their places. However, this pessimistic attitude was soon changed, for, after a little experience, the team scored five wins, four losses, and one tie.

We are proud of the spirit and drive of the team this year, and feel that they deserve much praise.

MR. ANDRESKY - Coach

Many new prospects for the coveted title "Riflema began practicing in September, but by the second week October, only twenty were permitted to remain on the tea Of these twenty, the ten top weekly scorers were given honor of shooting in that week's match. Each year the te participates in twelve matches with six teams from the su rounding area. Each team belongs to the National Ri Association.

The new coach, Mr. Andresky, has done a wonder job this year.

Golf

The spring weather brought the golf team out from its long winter rest. Returnees Ed Kinney, Bill Solominski, and Gary Zywotko, with a winning season in mind, began the golf season in fine condition.

The team coached by Mr. Zaney, played its home games at Chartiers Valley Country Club and away games at various district courses. It participates in Section VI of the W.P.I.A.L.

Tennis

This year the tennis team at Carnegie High has taken a great step forward. Under the direction of Mr. John Bandyk, our team has improved greatly and the interest among the elementary and junior high students has grown rapidly.

We were very fortunate this year in having three fine new courts. With this addition the team was able to practice much sooner and gain extra poise for the coming season.

Cheerleaders

A familiar sight at all the basketball and football games was the cheerleaders of Carnegie High School. They devoted their time and energy to practicing and preparing cheers during their summer evenings and while at cheering camp. Their efforts were not in vain, for they showed great skill, along with pep and enthusiasm, in boosting our boys to victory.

These are the cheerleaders of this year: Gerrie Isaacs, the only member to be on the senior squad three years, is the captain. Although one of the shortest cheerleaders, she makes up in enthusiasm what she lacks in stature. Sandy Armani's sweet smile and pleasant manner do much toward making the cheering section cheer well. Pat Caruso is the very lively one who keeps the action forever moving. Carol Gerrero is full of athletic skill and bubbling personality. Diane Bevard introduces the cheers, for if she wishes, her voice can be heard above all others. Diane is never seen without her cheery smile. Joanne Roman and Nancy Bogdon, the two cute sophomores, do a very good job of helping lead the cheering section.

Band

MR. DiIANNI - Band Instructor.

This year Mr. Aldo Dilanni has done a magnificent job with our band. Improvements are constantly appearing both in the quality of music and in routines.

Our band is actually three separate bands. These are: the football band, which starts before school begins and ends with the final play; the concert band, which plays from then until the Band Concert; the dance band, which plays all year.

The band marched in three parades: the Halloween Parade, for which they received an award of $40, and the Memorial Day and Fourth of July parades.

The band participated in the Bi-centenial Festival, and was represented at the District Band Festival by Tom Duda and Bob Mason.

Graduating seniors are: Band; Kathleen Mersing, Lucrece Ragland, Sandy Windon, Richard Briant, Tony Florence, and Ed Turney . . . Majorettes; Donna Bres, Gloria Hilton, Clara Miscoski, Marlane Schonder, and Pat Stasiowski . . . Drum Major, Shirley Pastin.

MR. PAUL PERHOSKY

MR. PAUL PERHOSKY

Mr. Perhosky has completed his second year as principal of Harding School. His smiling face, familiar and well-liked by both the elementary and junior high students, helps brighten the normal school day. Since the school's activities are running smoothly, he, as its advisor, may be commended for his part in this.

After receiving his Bachelor of Science degree at Indiana State Teachers College, Mr. Perhosky then attended the University of Pittsburgh and received a Master of Letters degree.

Besides his duty as principal, Mr. Perhosky teaches mathematics and social studies in the junior high.

MRS. HELEN MUSIOL

Mrs. Musiol has been the secretary to the principal of Harding School for six years. After graduating from Carnegie High School, she attended Business Training College in Pittsburgh. Her good cheer and warm personality have won her many friends; her understanding ways and desire to help have created a close bond between her and the entire student body.

Student Council

Student Council, under the capable direction of Mrs. Drew and the efficient leadership of the officers, is one of the most active and respected organizations in the junior high school. It is a representative group of the entire junior high who work for the betterment of the school through social and service activities. Each homeroom elects two students to represent it at the regular meetings and to share in the responsibility of managing school affairs. This strengthens the bond between students and faculty, which is one of the aims of Student Council.

Some of the many Student Council service projects during the year included acting as host to visiting athletic teams, supplying oranges for both the home and visiting teams, conducting the VOYAGER campaign, and announcing assemblies.

Student Council held two skating parties, and sponsored the "Get Acquainted" dance and the last dance of the year. The climax of the social activities was the annual "Hearts and Flowers" dance at which Joe Madva and Sally Marsilio were crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

These activities provide funds for the Student Council to purchase extra equipment for the school.

Rich,
Your tops are my book. Keep all of our secrets a secret Keep those elsie - cris bugs
Stay sweet Love, Sue

Rich, You're the sweetest boy I know.
Keep your wonderful personality and you'll always be on top. Luck and love to you.
Love you do Judy.

Rick,

You are really a swell guy with a great personality (among other things). Do you realize how I started the last two years? Maybe someday I can end it the same way. Rick, someday you will make some one very happy if you ever get over (?). Don't ever forget the wonderful times we've had together. This summer will be a real riot! I hope. Remember last year at Dartmouth? I would really like to see you get everything you want because you deserve it! Oh, by the way, maybe I am crazy, but I'm not a flirt, ask all what happens when I flirt! Lots of luck in the future; and Rick, don't change or do anything I wouldn't do. You're tops!

Love,
Nancy.

P.S No one is coming over except on Fridays. Maybe I should keep it that way Rick? At the present time anyway.

Rick,

To the prettiest Ape I know. Too bad I know you. Just kidding. Ha! Ha! Have fun this summer at Dartmouth and I hope you drown. None would waste their time pulling you out. Good luck with ----? Hope he'll date you soon. Thanks for everything.

Rich,
a sharp kid who I am proud to call a friend of mine. You're one of the best goosers in the H.S.
Take it easy on the girls & settle down to some good honest(?) labor & you're sure to succeed. #

Luck,
Windy

P.S. I still love you
Lots of love Luck
Rich so let's get together this summer & have a fuck you'll do (again) thru you know you lots of me too can make summer and have fun. Sh
no gf's H.S. girls do you girls those girls
Lots
Rich,
I have "Dwil skrew forget "Ape English" who has made Army classes a lot of fun. Hope to see you next year in Student Council, you have always deserved being a member. Lets get together this summer and have a blast. Lots of fuck.

Love
